

To whom it may concern, I am disabled. (P.T.S.D., Anxiety attacks with other Mental Health issues) Whenever the phone rings I become "startled". And when it is a "solicitor", I've gone through this "panic" for something I choose not to receive. It certainly doesn't feel fair. Don't you? Thank you for your time and "Please consider this plea to continue with the Do Not Call". Deborah